The Bankrupt Act.

We have been requested to publish the Bankrupt Law. This is impossible. It makes a respectable volume. In order, however, that the readers may understand it, and may therefore not be liable to be imposed upon by parties, who are indifferent to the interests of others, we have taken some pains to compile from several sources the following general principles of the Act, for the benefit of all who contemplate seeking its benefits. But first of all, we advise our friends not to determine hastily what they will do, until they have had the counsel of a respectable and intelligent Attorney, upon whom they can rely.

1. The manifest design of the Bankrupt Law is to benefit honest, but unfortunate, debtors, whose just liabilities are greater than they can pay.

2. To become a voluntary bankrupt under this Act, the debtor must owe at least $300, which, of course, he is not able to pay in full.

3. Petitioners under the Bankrupt Act are required to render a schedule of all their debts and liabilities, of every kind and description whatever, and also an inventory of all their estate, both real and personal, including all property and effects of which they are possessed, or in which they may have an interest, (though not in possession) in conformity with certain "Forms" prescribed in the "General Orders" of the Supreme Court of the United States. These schedules, verified by the oath of the petitioner before a District Court Judge, Register in Bankruptcy, or U. S. Commissioner, must accompany the petition, and, when filed, is the commencement of proceedings in Bankruptcy. If it should be found out, pending the proceedings at any time before the bankrupt is discharged, that he has, by any shift or subterfuge, made a false or partial schedule, this would be evidence of fraud and would defeat his discharge.

4. When the petition is by a firm or copartnership, a full set of schedules of the respective estates of the members of the firm should also be added.

5. When the petition is filed, the case is immediately referred to a Register, who examines the petition and schedules annexed thereto, and if they are correct in form, makes a certificate to that effect, to be filed with the Clerk, then adjudges the debtor a Bankrupt and issues a warrant to the messenger to summon all the creditors named in the petitioner's schedules to meet at the Register's office, at a certain time and place, to prove their claims and elect one or more Assignees to take charge of the Bankrupt's estate.

6. A creditor can, however, prove his claim at any time previous to the last dividend, which will generally be six months subsequent to the adjudication of Bankruptcy.

7. No creditor has any standing in a Bankrupt Court until he proves his claim.

8. Creditors have no right to compel the Bankrupt to answer questions concerning the disposal of property by him acquired subsequent to filing a petition in Bankruptcy. In other words, the date of the filing of the petition by or against a debtor, is the date at which, if adjudications of bankruptcy follows, the old order of things passes away and a new leaf is turned over. On this point decisions have been rendered. The safe rule appears to be, that the applicant in Bankruptcy has a perfect right to claim whatever he has made after his application, by his personal exertions, but any profits he may have made from investment or credit, may be liable to the claim of the receiver up to almost the period of his discharge.

9. The Bankrupt can apply to the Court at any time after the expiration of six months, and within one year from the adjudication, for the discharge in bankruptcy, and in case no assets come into the hands of the assignee, or no debts be proved against his estate, at any time after the expiration of sixty days.

10. As soon as an Assignee is elected or appointed, the Judge or Register will convey to him, by deed of assignment, all the bankrupt's property except what is exempted, viz: "Household and kitchen furniture and other necessaries not exceeding in value ($300) five hundred dollars, also his wearing apparel and that of his wife and children, and such other property not included in the foregoing as is exempt from levy and sale upon execution or other process by the laws of the State in which the bankrupt resides, to an amount not exceeding that allowed by State exemption laws in force in 1861. A safe Counselor suggests, under this head, that the common impression that persons may become bankrupts and yet be allowed to retain their houses and lands, or other property of considerable value, is a great mistake. Under the Act, no honest Bankrupt in this State can have allotted to him, exempt from the operation of the Act, exceeding $750 besides the wearing apparel of himself and Family. Bankrupts in this State are not entitled to homesteads under this Act.

11. It is the duty of the assignee, within twenty days after the assignment to him is made, to call on the bankrupt (such articles as are exempted), and file an inventory of the same with the value of each article so allotted, and creditors may make objections to the report of the Assignee at any time within twenty days after it is filed.

12. As to costs in bankruptcy proceedings, section 46 of the Bankrupt Act provides that the petitioner, before a warrant issues, shall deposit fifty dollars with the Register, or with the Clerk, to be delivered to the Register as a security for his fees. General order XXIX provides that the fees of the Register, Marshal and Clerk shall be prepaid or secured before they can be compelled to act. It is also provided by General order XXX, that where the debtor has no means, and can prove the fact to the satisfaction of the Court, upon application, an order will be made requiring all the costs in the case to be paid out of the fifty dollars deposited with the Register. If, however, there are assets, but not enough to pay the Messenger after deducting the Bankrupt's exempted property, so that nothing comes into the hands of the Assignee, the fees will have to be paid by the Bankrupt; but if the Assignee receives assets, the fees of the Messenger will be paid by him before any dividend is made among creditors.

13. Some suppose that the Register is entitled to $50 fee. The fees of the Register, Messenger, Clerk, and costs of publication of notices in Bankruptcy, are fixed by law, and if they demand higher fees, they are liable, as in other cases of malfeasance in office. In ordinary cases of Bankruptcy, the fees may amount to $100, in some cases more, in some less—the costs depending on the amount of labor and litigation involved in each case.

14. Differences of opinion among Attorneys have existed in this State, as to the limit which the Act makes, as to the time to make application in Bankruptcy. Some have supposed that no debts could be permitted to apply for Bankruptcy after one early day in March, unless he is able to pay fifty per cent of his debts. We are assured that this is not the case. The law did not go into operation for the purposes for which it was enacted until June 1st, 1867. It gives twelve months from that time, to all honest debtors, whatever may be the extent of their indebtedness which they cannot pay in which to proceed their applications. After the 1st of June next, every debtor must be able to pay fifty per cent of his indebtedness in order to a successful application in bankruptcy, unless he first obtain the consent of a majority of his creditors.

Conservative State Executive Ticket.

FOR GOVERNOR.

HON. THOS. S. ASHE,

OF ANSON.

FOR LIEUTENANT-GOVERNOR,

COL. EDWARD D. HALL,

OF NEW HANOVER.

THE NEW CONSTITUTION, AGAIN.

Even the most cursory reading of the Mongrel Constitution exhibits the most palpable evidences of Radical ignorance and hatred to the white people of the State. The idea of making such an instrument as that acceptable to the white people of the State of North Carolina, simply because no white man is disfranchised by it, is the height of absurdity. And yet this seems to be the idea of some so-called moderate Republicans, and a few weak-kneed Conservatives, who think we had better take it, lest we get something worse. They admit that it is bad, very bad, in many respects, yet, because it is not red-hot with Radical rage in the matter of disfranchisement, they think it is better to vote for it. Ridiculous!

What is the poor boon offered to the white men of North Carolina, the real, constitutional, governing people of the State? Is it a God-send to the white people of North Carolina to be admitted, by the new Constitution, to be equal to the negro? To be allowed to vote alongside the negro, but at the same time to be denied the equal right with the negro to hold office, as the Howard amendment requires? Is the poor right to vote with the negro, a proper consideration for the surrender of our old Constitution, acknowledged for nearly a century to be a "Republican Constitution?" Is this enough for the surrender of all protection to property, all just protection to the morals of society? Is this enough to compensate for the horrible TAXATION imposed by the new Constitution? Is this enough to compensate for the surrender of our Judiciary—for us to consent to have the Judges elected, for a term of eight years only, by the people, NEGROES AND ALL, and thus prostitute that high office, the only real protector of life, liberty and property, to the uses of the partizan demagogue?—AWAY WITH IT—AWAY WITH IT!

It is difficult to read, with any care, any article of the new Constitution, and not find new plans and schemes, effecting important changes in our State, County and municipal regulations,—mere Yankeeisms, adapted perhaps to a dense population, endowed with large wealth, but wholly unsuited to the poverty-stricken and sparse population of North Carolina. The few Yankee squatters in the mongrel Convention have shown their influence and control over that body, in every article of the new Constitution.—They were capable of compiling from those of the Northern States, perhaps, but wholly incapable of preparing one adapted to the condition and wants of North Carolina.

COMMISSIONERS AND TOWNSHIPS.

By Article VII., it will be seen that each County shall elect a Treasurer, Register of Deeds, Surveyor and five Commissioners. These five Commissioners must be salaried officers, adding five more officers to each County. Their duties and powers are onerous and large. They are to exercise a general control of the penal and charitable institutions, Schools, Roads, Bridges, levying of taxes, and of the finances of the County—the first Commissioners to divide the Counties into convenient districts, to determine the boundaries, and so on, and, if the General Assembly approve of their report, then these districts are to have corporate powers for their local government, and these Districts are to be known as townships.

This is a provision wholly unnecessary, purely Yankee in its character, and must add greatly to the taxation of the people for County purposes. The five Commissioners alone ought to be paid $1,500 each—suitable men could not be obtained for less, and their duties would occupy most of their time. Say, add $7,500 for Commissioners, and then at least $2,000 for the expense of the local government of each township, and it would increase the County taxes to an enormous sum! What better evidence of the total unfitness of the mongrel Convention to make a Constitution for North Carolina, than this, is wanted? Read the whole article and see what a complicated and expensive system of local government, totally unnecessary, is provided for. These Commissioners, &c., are to be elected by the people. In seventeen counties in the State, the negroes have a majority, and in these counties, especially, the blacks may elect these officers, who control the schools, and who are to impose the taxes, &c.

Instead of the County Courts, regarded popularly as the People's Courts, which are abolished, (see Art. VI) Justices of the Peace will have jurisdiction of all civil cases founded on contract, on all sums under $200, and all criminal cases, where the punishments cannot exceed a fine of fifty dollars or imprisonment for one month.—When an issue is joined before a Justice, he may call in jurors to try the case. Justices, therefore, who are all elected by the people, in many of the counties may be negroes, and have the power to fine, imprison and levy taxes. There is a right of appeal, but many cannot give security, and in such cases poor negroes, as well as poor white men, may suffer.

SALARIED OFFICERS.

Article IV, Sec. 22, provides that the General Assembly must prescribe the salaries, &c., of ALL OFFICERS provided for in that Article. Justices of the Peace are named as officers in that Article. Hence, hereafter, Justices of the Peace are to be salaried officers. If so, that will make about 6,000 more salaried officers in the State, including Commissioners, &c.

HOMESTEADS AND STAY LAWS.

The mongrel Convention professed to want to relieve the people—made much clatter about their relief, but did nothing substantial for them. Indeed, the great concern of the so-called Convention seems to have been to get up offices for Radical scallawags and Yankee squatters, with good salaries, increasing eight or ten-fold the taxes and the burdens of the people.

Notice one important fact: The new Constitution, Art. IV., Sec. 15, gives jurisdiction to the Superior Courts over ALL CIVIL ACTIONS. The General Assembly, if this Constitution is adopted, cannot alter or change, or modify the jurisdiction of the Superior or Supreme Courts. Whatever necessity may arise, so long as the new Constitution, if ratified, stands, so long the powers of the Courts are unchangable.

If this be so, and there is no doubt of it, what is the Stay Law ordinance of the Convention worth, or what is the constitutional provision for homesteads and exemptions worth? Whenever an action for debt comes before the Superior Court, or on appeal before the Supreme Court, the supreme authority of the Constitution of the United States, which forbids any State from passing any law violating the obligation of contracts, must prevail. The homestead article in the new Constitution, which professes to protect a homestead against debts contracted before the homestead was settled upon the owner, before any Court, will go by the board.

Moreover, the Homestead is liable to taxes, for debts due for its purchase and for debts contracted for work done on it. Few poor men could hold their Homesteads against the enormous taxes which the new Constitution allows the General Assembly to impose, and every lawyer in the State knows, that the Homestead article in the new Constitution affords no protection whatever to the honest debtors of North Carolina against their old debts. The whole thing is a cheat and a deception, planned to catch votes.

We beg to call the special attention of Canvassers to this point.

Equally inefficient is the Stay law passed by the Convention. It affords no real protection to the poor honest debtor, but leaves him entirely to the mercy of the creditor and of the Courts.

WHITES AND BLACKS IN THE MILITIA AND SCHOOLS.

The Radical press and speakers in the State feel the severe pressure against the party, because of the provisions of the new Constitution requiring the white and black militia to be enrolled together and the white and black children to go to the same schools. Unable to show, by any proper construction of the Constitution, that it is not so, they simply deny the thing outright. We learn that the Standard says, that the General Assembly will order the enrolment of the blacks and whites in separate companies, and separate schools for the white and black children.

Now every lawyer, who understands the construction of an instrument, will tell you differently. They will tell you the General Assembly can do no such thing. The whole tenor of the Constitution FORBIDS it. If the General Assembly were to attempt such a thing, and the negroes were opposed to it, they could easily get up a case for the Courts and the Courts would declare the law unconstitutional. W. B Rodman knows this, and he knows that there is no help, no relief for the white people in these matters. The majority of the whites over the blacks does not help the case; the Constitution fixes it upon them. Especially in the Western counties, if the Constitution is adopted, there is no way of avoiding it.

HARD LYING "TECHNICALLY."—The application of the impeachers of President Johnson, which was presented the day after his long and able answer was presented, sets forth the following statements: "The House of Representatives of the United States have considered the several answers of Andrew Johnson," &c. Immediately after the reading of the answer, the managers stated that their replication would be made the next day at 1 o'clock. In a few hours after that, before the House had acted upon the replication at all, it was sent off by telegraph and appeared in the New York and other papers, several hours before the matter was brought to the consideration of the House; and yet the replication states that "the House of Representatives have considered the several answers," &c.

JUDGE BLACK.—This eminent lawyer was embraced in the counsel of President Johnson, as first selected on the impeachment trial. Mr. Black has declined to serve, it is alleged, because of the refusal of the President to order a man-of-war to take possession of a small island near St. Domingo, and claimed by the Dominican government, to which a client of Mr. B's lays claim,—the President assigning, as a reason, that the case is wholly within the jurisdiction of Congress and not of the Executive, as the act would be properly esteemed as a declaration of war against the Dominicans. It seems to us the President is right.

WHICH IS BETTER, the old Constitution of our fathers, under which we have lived and prospered, or the new Constitution, which obliterates all the ancient and honored landmarks, and provides for a TAXATION, which will crush the people to powder, and which is designed to have the effect of transferring the property of our people into the hands of NORTHERN SPECULATORS?

SHALL NEGRO GUARDIANS BE APPOINTED FOR WHITE WARDS? That is one of the issues. The so-called Convention voted down a prohibition of this possible outrage!

GEN. CANBY'S ELECTION ORDER.

This order has been issued by Gen. Canby, in General Orders, No. 45. It shall appear in our next. We make a synopsis of it.

After reviewing the action of the "Constitutional Convention," in conformity with the Reconstruction acts, in framing a Constitution and providing for an election for its ratification and the election of officers, the order embraces the following points:

1. The election to be held on the 21st., 22nd. and 23rd. of April next. Only registered voters to vote, "For" or "Against" the Constitution, and, on the same ballot, for State and county officers and for members of Congress and Solicitors.

2. The Boards of Registration to revise, after due notice, the registration lists for five days, beginning fourteen days before the election, (21st. April) and to strike from the lists all who are known not to be entitled to vote, and to add the names of such voters as are qualified, who have not been registered.

3. In purging the lists of unqualified voters, the Boards to be guided by the Reconstruction Act of 2nd. of March, 1867, and all the supplementary acts, and, especially, the act of July 19th., 1867.

4. Any duly registered voter in the State, who may have removed from the county, in which he registered, shall be entitled to vote in the county to which he has removed, and where he has resided ten days before the election, on presentation of a certificate of registration from the county in which he was originally registered, or upon his affidavit or other satisfactory evidence that he has so registered and that he has not voted at this election, &c.

5. Elections to be held at such places as may be hereafter designated, &c.

6. The polls to be opened at 6 o'clock in the forenoon and closed at 6 o'clock in the afternoon of each day, and to be kept open without intermission.

7. All judges and clerks to be sworn, &c.

8. No candidate for office to be a judge or inspector of the election.

9, 10, 11 and 12 refer to the duties of peace officers, &c., and the preservation of order.

13. Returns to be made to the District Commander, through the several Military Post Commanders.

14. Officers to be voted for are a Governor, Lieutenant Governor, Secretary of State, Auditor, Treasurer, Superintendent of Public Works, Superintendent of Public Instruction, Attorney General, one Chief Justice and four Associate Judges of the Supreme Court, and twelve Superior Court Judges, one for each District; but all of the foregoing officers to be voted for by general ticket by all the qualified voters of the State. One Solicitor for each Judical District, to be elected by the qualified voters of each District. Members of the General Assembly—50 members of the Senate, to be voted for by the qualified voters of each Senatorial District, and 120 members, to be elected by the qualified voters of each county, as designated in the order.

15. County officers, Sheriff, Coroner, Treasurer, County Clerk of Superior Court, Register of Deeds, Surveyor and Five Commissioners, to be elected by the qualified voters of their respective counties.

16. Seven members of Congress to be elected by the qualified voters of each Congressional District.

THE IMPEACHMENT.—The Counsel of the President asked for and claimed thirty days, in which to prepare for the defence; but the Court only agreed to allow him five.—A majority of the Court are manifestly bent on his impeachment, right or wrong, but the strength of the President's case against the impeachers is so self evident, that we hope, for truth's sake and for the honor of the country, there will be found enough honest men in the Senate, to frustrate the malicious and wicked designs of the majority.

The New York World, in an article upon the impeachment, makes a strong point in favor of the President, in reference to the charges growing out of the removal of Stanton: The Constitution makes the Cabinet the advisers of the President. It is not expected that the President can determine his course of action, in every case among so many, and, therefore, in great measure, he must lean upon the counsel of his advisers. His Cabinet, as witnesses, therefore, will prove, (and among them Stanton himself,) that all of them were agreed that the Tenure of office bill was unconstitutional, but that, admitting it to be a law after its final passage, the President could not violate it by the removal of any one or all of those officers of the Cabinet, who had not been appointed by himself,—Mr. Stanton being one of them. He can prove, by the Cabinet, that he acted agreeably to their advice and counsel in every particular, and that, therefore, his conduct is not criminal, even though it might have been wrong, for the reasons that he followed the advice of his constitutional advisers, whom he was obliged, by the action and intent of the Congress, to keep as his advisers, whether against his will or not.

DAVID F. CALDWELL, Esq.,—FIFTH CONGRESSIONAL DISTRICT.—The Convention of delegates for this District met in Greensboro', on Wednesday last. The proceedings have been received and shall appear in our next.

D. F. Caldwell, Esq., of Guilford, was unanimously adopted as the Conservative candidate for Congress,—than which no more excellent and judicious selection could have been made. Mr. Caldwell is an effective canvasser, has a consistent record, and will throw all of his energy and ability into the scales to defeat the mongrel Constitution.

The Hons. Bedford Brown and J. M. Leach were appointed delegates to the National Democratic Convention, with Hon. A. M. Scales and M. S. Robbins, Esq., as Alternates.

SHALL WHITE MEN BE ENROLLED in the MILITIA with NEGROES,—perhaps under negro officers? That is one of the issues.

MR. ASHE'S LETTER OF ACCEPTANCE.

We have the pleasure of giving below the letter of the Hon. Thos. S. Ashe, accepting the nomination as the Conservative candidate for Governor, tendered him by the State Executive Committee. It breathes a spirit of true patriotism, eminently characteristic of its noble author:

ROCKINGHAM, March 20, 1868.

HON. THOS. BRAGG, Chairman, &c.:

My Dear Sir.—Your favor of the 14th. instant, apprising me of my nomination by the State Conservative Executive Committee, as a candidate for the office of Governor of the State, and requesting my acceptance of the same, has been received.

This communication found me in the midst of professional engagements and has taken me greatly by surprise; and as I have never entertained any aspirations for Gubernatorial honors, my first impulse was to decline. But considering the delay that has already unavoidably occurred in the selection of a Conservative candidate, the shortness of the time between this and the election, and contemplating the critical condition of the State, with her cherished institutions threatened with the most pernicious innovations, I hold it is no time for any son, who loves her, to stand back from the contest, or fail to exert all the power that in him lies, to avert the impending calamities.

Under these considerations I feel constrained to accept the nomination, sincerely regretting, however, that the choice of the Committee had not fallen upon some one more able to do service in the noble cause of Conservatism.

Please assure the Committee of my appreciation of the high compliment they have paid me, and accept for yourself and them my acknowedgements of the courteous terms in which they have informed me of the nomination.

With sentiments of high regard,
I am, most truly,
Your obt. servt.,
THOS. S. ASHE.

LETTER FROM GOV. VANCE.

The following letter from Gov. Vance, we are sure, will be satisfactory to our Conservative friends in the East. He is where he can accomplish the most good, and is doing his duty most gloriously:

CHARLOTTE, N. C., March 26, 1868.

Messrs. Pell & Gales:—I have received such a number of invitations to address the people in the Central and Eastern portions of the State, that I can not find time even to reply to them individually. I am compelled, therefore, to take this method of informing our friends, in those sections, that it will be impracticable for me to make any appointments East of this place before the election. I am satisfied that the hope of North Carolina rests with the free white men of the West, and among them I shall labor to the last. My appointments are already made in that direction.

I am not insensible to the very kind and complimentary confidence which these numerous invitations imply. I beg to thank Conservative men everywhere for it, and to assure them it shall not be misplaced. I hope to send them greeting from the mountains after the old style.

Very truly Yours,
Z. B. VANCE.

"The turn which the "assassination plot" has taken, has greatly amused us in these diggings. None of us, of course, ever cared much for Lincoln in his life time, but all were horror-struck at the "manner of his taking off." When Holden threw off the charge from his own shoulders to the broad shoulders of Mr. Pell, we really feared there was something in it. It was so unlike him, however, that it seemed hard to believe.—When Mr. Pell denied the charge, we knew that he spoke truth. He must have changed mightily—from what he used to be, or his word could be taken for anything. In fact, when he was known here, he was a man of the most scrupulous truthfulness, and was, in all respects, one of the purest and best of men. His denial was enough. But when Helper came with his "Record" and piled on the agony, by knocking from under the trembling wretch, his last prop, by the exhibition of his own admitted Semi-Weekly, and proved it to be there, in his own leading editorial, it was pitiful. People really felt sorry for the poor fellow.

The exposure was too complete, and the punishment unconstitutional and cruel."

* * * * * * *

Extract from a private letter to a gentleman in this city, from Newbern.

ALABAMA AND ARKANSAS.—Alabama defeated the new Constitution by not voting. The Radical Congress set to work to check-mate such a result in future, and ordered that, hereafter, a majority of the voters on the new Constitutions would be sufficient to ratify. The New York "World" humorously says:

"Now that the latest amendment of the Reconstruction law failed to accomplish the ratification by Arkansas of the Constitution prepared for it by a batch of Northern adventurers and ignorant negroes, we await a fresh amendment for the special benefit of the States that have yet to vote upon the question of ratifying the new Constitutions provided for them. The whole Congressional plan of reconstruction is strikingly similar to the old New England theology, which was thus epitomized in rhyme:

"You shall and you shan't,
You will and you won't;
You'll be damned if you do,
You'll be damned if you don't."

DUPLIN COUNTY.

The announcement that certain Radicals would address the people of Duplin, at Kenansville, on Tuesday, caused a very large crowd of negroes to be assembled. It being court week, a large concourse of whites were present also. Col. McKoy, of Sampson, and Col. Kenan, Conservative candidate for Congress, called upon Gen. Littlefield to ask a division of time, which was granted, but these gentlemen were limited to a half hour each. Gen. Littlefield, Mr. Heaton, and W. E. Hill were the Radical speakers. Cols. McKoy and Kenan replied. Their efforts are reported as highly creditable and entirely satisfactory to the large crowd of whites in attendance. Col. McKoy was really cruel in his excoriation of Billy Hill. The poor creature had but little courage left to stammer out a feeble reply. Col. Kenan acquitted himself most handsomely, and the Ohio candidate for Congress came off second best in this first encounter. Littlefield, Heaton and Hill made no impression upon the sterling people of Duplin. Our columns are closed up—on with the charge.—Wil. Journal.

WHICH IS BETTER, a system of State government, devised by Gaston, Macon, Daniel, Morehead, and other North Carolina patriots, or a system devised by New England adventurers, based upon Yankee notions and prejudices, adapted to New England wants, and adopted by scallawags and negroes?

[Correspondence of the Sentinel.]

Hon. Josiah Turner in Randolph!

He gives the Rads "Fits."

ASHBORO', March 24, 1868.

MESSRS. EDITORS:—We have had a refreshing season in Randolph. Mr. Turner, to-day, addressed the largest assembly of people that has been seen in the County for ten years. Men, women and children all seemed deeply interested. There were not less than four thousand people present.

Mr. Turner said that the ratification of the Constitution would destroy the County Courts and put Caswell, Granville and Warren, and many other Counties, under the control of five negro Commissioners. We would have negro and white children at school together, and white men and negroes mustering together. The old Constitution and old Courts, and old Judges, under whom we had prospered, were to be destroyed. A new Constitution, with negroes and strangers, was to rule us. The old Constitution and the old Judges needed no word of recommendation from him. The best evidence of the want of capacity of the Radical candidates is to be found in the fact that two of the candidates, Messrs. Settle and Dick, are canvassing the State, while they are candidates for the Supreme Court bench. Every man, who knows them, is satisfied that they have neither the learning or capacity to make Judges; they have never had practice sufficient to qualify them for the bar, much less the bench.

Rodman, he said, had murdered men and robbed women and children. He had murdered Union men, for no other offence than refusing to fight against the Union. He had robbed women of their husbands and children of their fathers. "Did you," said he, "know King, Haddock, Lamb, Nixon, and others that I could name? Do you know their widows and their children? Do you know who murdered these men? Do you know that Rodman, a candidate that you are called upon to vote for, as a Supreme Court Judge, murdered men, judicially, by ordering them to be shot, because they would not fight against the Union?—When you vote for him, you ought to have all the bullets, which he caused to be shot through your children, shot through you!"

Mr. Turner said he hardly believed that if Rodman were here he would find more men willing to lynch, than to vote for him.

He then held up to our loyal people, Holden and Dick, as signers of the ordinance of Secession—two men who had pledged their lives and fortunes and sacred honors, to make secession good, and then refused to fight for the cause; and when two hundred thousand men had been slain, they joined over the graves of the slain, and over the failure of the cause which they had inaugurated and urged upon the people.

The ability and power of the speaker is unsurpassed except by the act which gives to it. A prominent Radical was heard to say that having Rodman on the ticket would defeat the Constitution and Holden, too, and it ought. Many men spoke out that they had been, but would be no longer, members of the Leagues. You may write Randolph down against ratification, Holden, Dick and Rodman!

While Mr. Turner was speaking, Dick was called for by Mr. Ashworth. Mr. Turner said that Mr. Dick would not allow him to go into one of his meetings, and surely Mr. Dick would not expect to speak at his (Mr. Turner's) meeting, for it was a bad rule that did not work both ways.

A call was made to take the members of the League from listening to Mr. Turner, and notice was given that Mr. Dick would address them in the Court House. All the negroes, and a few whites, went from where Mr. Turner was speaking into the Court House to hear Mr. Dick. He talked and cried, and cried and talked, to about one hundred negroes and forty white men. He said that all good citizens ought to have land. Rebels, he said, acted as if they did not want the poor blacks to have homes, &c., &c.

Gentlemen are here from Guilford, who speak confidently of great gains for the Conservatives in that county. As evidence of it, they say that at the late meeting at High Point, where Holden, Settle, Tourgee and Windy Billy, of mule distinction, were to speak, they had only about one hundred hearers—mostly negroes.

If the East will do her duty in the election, I will answer FOR THE WEST.

Yours, R.

WHITE MEN OF THE WEST!—Are you in favor of the people of the State paying a tax of a million and a half of dollars next year, that the bond holders of the State in WALL STREET may realize fortunes by their sale, while you are left in poverty and distress? If you are not, then vote against the new Constitution; for that is what it requires of you.—Old North State.

Mass Meetings.

The State Executive Committee recommend the holding of Conservative Mass Meetings at the following times and places:

Raleigh,	Tuesday,	April	7
Statesville,	"	"	7
Greensboro',	Friday,	"	10
Wilmington,	"	"	10
Goldsboro',	Wednesday,	"	8
Salisbury,	"	"	8

Messrs. DOOLITTLE, HENDRICKS and others of U. S. Senate, and Messrs. BROOKS, ELDRIDGE and others of the House, have been invited to attend these meetings, and they are expected to come. It will be seen that the meetings are crowded, for the reason that these gentlemen can remain in the State but a few days.

Our friends in these places are requested to make the necessary arrangements for holding these meetings and further publication, &c. Popular speakers in this State are also expected to be present. Rally Conservatives!

SAML. T. WILLIAMS, ESQ.

The Conservative candidate for Congress in this District will address the people at the following times and places:

Raleigh,	Monday, Mar. 30.
Louisburg,	Tuesday, Apl. 7.
Earpsboro, (Johnston,)	Saturday " 11.

Other appointments, embracing the intervals between the above, and for subsequent times and places, will be duly announced.

CONSERVATIVE COUNTY MEETING.

A meeting of the Conservatives of Wake will be held in the Court House, on Monday next. We observe that many of the counties are nominating a County Treasurer, Register of Deeds, and County Commissioners. The vacancy created by the declination of Col. Russ is to be filled and other important business to be transacted. Let all be present. Mr. Williams, the Conservative candidate for Congress, will address the people on that occasion.

THE NORTH CAROLINIAN.—The Proprietors announce that the publication of this paper will be resumed on the 6th of April. It will continue to be, as before its recent suspension, an unflinching advocate of a White Man's government. We will take pleasure in publishing, in our next, the card of the Editors.

WARREN.—Col. Wm. A. Jenkins and the Hon. Wm. E. Eaton, Jr., and perhaps others, will address the people of the Nat Bush District, in Warren, at White & Burwell's Store, on the first Saturday in April, (4th.)

HON. JNO. KERR.—This distinguished and patriotic gentleman is the Conservative nominee for Solicitor in the Fifth Judicial District. Judge Cilley had previously done himself honor by appointing him, vice Settle, resigned.

HON. C. C. CLARK, of Craven, will soon address the people of Craven upon the issues of the day. His numerous friends will greet this announcement with pleasure.

COL. J. A. RICHARDSON, of Bladen, accepts, in an appropriate letter, the Conservative nomination for Solicitor in the Fourth Judicial District.

THE CRAVEN CANVASSERS and Candidates publish a full list of appointments for that county.

"ARCHIVES OF GRABITY."—Carey, nigger, (author of this memorable expression,) is nominated for the Legislature in Caswell.—Carey slept through at least four fifths of the two months that the so-called was in session, and received $572 therefor!

WE ARE GLAD to learn that our friend Shotwell, of the Rockingham Vindicator, is proceeding with his sprightly journal. One of the surest roads to success is to sustain the Conservative press.

THE WARRENTON Courier doubts whether there are six white men in the county who will vote for ratifying the Constitution.

MAYOR'S COURT.—J. M. Blair, charged with violation of city ordinance, was fined $1.

H. Grant, for an assault, was returned to court.

R. Morse and T. Johnson, for disorderly conduct, were fined $5 each.

W. Daney, jr., and L. Gouge were lodged in the guard house and fined $2 each.

WHICH IS BETTER, a Government administered by intelligent and virtuous native WHITE MEN, or a Government administered by needy squatters, ignorant Africans and impudent allies of mixed blood?

The East Answers the West!

FRENCH, OF WASHINGTON CITY, "GINS A TREAT!"—ROTTEN SHAD!!

EDENTON, March 24, 1868.

Messrs. Editors:—It seems that the entire State is to be visited by Gen. Littlefield, and other scallawag orators, but, if they will consent to a discussion, they will not carry with them to their homes many pleasant memories of this section of the State.

Our people have been surprised at the announcement of a speech, at this place, by Mr. John Pool. It is positively asserted, by several gentlemen, that Mr. John Pool, not more than two months since, disavowed any connection with the Radicals, and expressed disgust at their doings. But whether he has returned to the fold or not, I can assure you that Mr. John Pool has no political influence in this County.

From all reports, the white people will vote as a unit, and, in addition to the registered vote, we think that a good many more will register. For the benefit of the X. P. G., let it be known that, in 1864, when this County was in the Yankee lines, Holden received two votes for Governor, in Chowan County. Most of the negroes, and eight white scallawags, will sustain him now, but, when the returns are received in Raleigh, you will find that six hundred votes were polled in Chowan against the X. P. G.

The Hon. (?) John R. French returned to this place, a day or two since, and yesterday purchased a lot of condemned shad, and gave one to every negro that passed along. He is advertised to speak at several places in this district, in company with R. P. Dick, Hood, (negro,) and Gen. Littlefield. If Mr. Dick has not forgotten all decency, we think he had better remain in Greensboro, instead of making public speeches, with a negro, from the same stand where his father presided as a Judge of the State of North Carolina.

But we think that the people understand all these things, and will give these demagogues and their pet Constitution a severe condemnation. Push on the good work, and urge the people to rally in defence of their honor, their children and those high prerogatives, the birthright of every free WHITE MAN! PEIRO.

From the Knoxville Press and Herald.

THE KU KLUX KLAN ORGANIZED AT THE HOME OF BROWNLOW.

It is our painful duty to announce that the dreaded band of the Ku-Klux Klan has made its appearance even within the sacred precincts of this holy shrine of loyalty. At that darkest hour which just precedes the dawn of day, on yesterday morning, a few faithful Africans, just rousing from their slumbers, beheld a ghostly band of mysterious horsemen, clad in cerement of white, mounted upon pale gray horses, shod with felt, and one bearing on high a spotless banner inscribed in characters of vivid flames with the appalling word, "Revenge!" Not a sound was heard as the ghostly band moved steadily through the street, no clink ing of scabbard and jingling of spurs resounded upon the still morning air; no foot fall fell upon the startled ears of the bewildered loyalists; but silently and calmly as though moving in the air, that awesome band went on—on through the street, to the bluff at the river, and over it, marching then as steadily through the thin air to the further side, and then, just as the first red streaks of dawn were visible in the east, the whole squadron vanished suddenly, and the white banner faded away from sight.

As an aged African residing at Eastport was proceeding to the spring just before daylight yesterday morning, and at the same time that this band was marching through the streets of Knoxville, he turned to look at his cabin, when, to his dismay, he beheld in letters of fire upon its walls the following thrilling words:

K. K. K.

BAKER'S TOMB—EASTERN DIVISION—WINDY MONTH—CLOUDY DAY—BLOODY HOOF.

Ku-Klux, the hour approacheth. Shake up dry bones and meet on the Mysterious Circle of the Hollow Sphere. From East and West, from North and South, we come to measure justice for the traitor's doom.—When darkness reigns then is the hour to strike.

By order of the GREAT GRAND CENTAUR. Somyb. Urlagile.

The poor African loyalist fell fainting to the earth, and remained in a swoon till the warm rays of the rising sun dispelled the darkness, and trembling, he returned to his cabin.

In consequence of these strange manifestations the loyal element in our midst was thrown into great excitement yesterday. It would seem that the members of the Klan had indeed burst the cerements of the grave and were now wandering through this soil consecrated by the sacred dust of our great apostle of loyalty, the sainted Brownlow.

Anxious consultations were held yesterday at the headquarters of loyalty. Something has to be done, and that quickly.

THE TAXES IN NORTH CAROLINA.

We gave on Monday a telegraphic abstract of the financial condition of the Old North State. It is estimated that the public debt on the 1st of July 1869, under the new Constitution, will amount to $19,476,500, the interest on which, ordered to be paid on that day, will be $851,000. There will be also an additional tax of $985,000 to be raised next year. These two enormous sums, added to the present tax, will make up $2,600,000 to be raised in 1869 by the inhabitants of North Carolina.

This terrible exaction could not have been stood by the State in the very best days. How can she stand it now, when she is so impoverished?

We do not see how North Carolina can meet these obligations, if such they can be called, when so large a part of the debt was thrust upon the people by those whom the property owners did not elect to represent them.

It is true that the Convention has "ordered" the interest and tax to be paid; but so they might have ordered the Roanoke river to flow back to the mountains, or any other impossibility. The truth is, the immense sum of $2,600,000 cannot be paid.

The same results will follow in the wake of the Radical Conventions everywhere—for they have burdened the people with burdens too grievous to be borne wherever they have had rule.

We fear that the inevitable consequence of this carnival of Jacobinism will be universal repudiation, and this, not from any wish of the owners of property to shirk paying their debts, but from inability to do so. This is a horrible view to take of the future; but it is what we are forced to take; for the action of the party has been the same all over the South, and the results must be everywhere the same.—Norfolk Journal.

THREE NEGROES,—one for the Senate and two for the "House of Representatives,"—it is said, have been nominated, in Warren. Two—one for the Senate and one for the House,—have been nominated in Caswell. This makes sixteen negroes thus far nominated for only eight counties. Look at that, white men!

CONSERVATIVE MEETING IN PERQUIMANS.

At a Conservative meeting held at Hertford, Perquimans county, March 21st, 1868, Dr. David Cox was called to the chair, and Jno. A. Morgan was appointed Secretary.

Willis Bagley, Esq., explained the object of the meeting, in an eloquent and stirring speech.

On motion, a Committee of five was appointed by the Chair, to perfect a plan of county organization, consisting of the following gentlemen, to wit: T. G. Skinner, Baker Hoskins, Wm. Simpson, A. Smith Jordan and P. H. Welch, Esq.

On motion, a Committee of five were appointed to draft resolutions, expressive of the sense of this meeting, as follows: Willis Bagley, J. H. White, Ben. T. Thatch, Levin Ward and Wilson Fleetwood, Esqs., who reported the following resolutions, which were unanimously adopted:

Resolved, That we do hereby endorse and approve the platform of principles enunciated by the Conservative Convention held at Raleigh in the month of February last.

2d. That we approve of the nomination of the Conservative State Executive Committee, for the State officers, and we do hereby pledge, to their support, the votes of the Conservative people of Perquimans county.

3d. That the Constitution about to be presented for our ratification or rejection, by the late Reconstruction Convention, (so-called,) is full of innovations tending to subvert the liberties of the people, and dangerous to the peace of society, and that we are unalterably opposed to the same.

4th. That we do earnestly request every citizen who is entitled to register, under the reconstruction acts, and has not done so, to cause himself to be enrolled at the earliest opportunity—a duty which we believe no good citizen will hesitate to perform.

5th. That we do respectfully ask every Conservative citizen of the county, whether registered or not, to exert himself in support of these principles, and to arouse the people from the state of indifference into which they seem to have fallen, and to a sense of their duty to themselves and their children.

On motion of J. B. Thatch, Esq., Mr. David Roberts was added to the list of county canvassers.

On motion, the thanks of this meeting were tendered T. G. Skinner, Esq., for the clear and concise manner in which he explained our State and National affairs, and that a copy of his speech be transmitted with these proceedings for publication.

On motion, the Secretary was requested to transmit these proceedings to the Weekly Transcript and Raleigh Sentinel for publication.

On motion, the meeting adjourned to meet on Monday of Superior Court.

WASHINGTON FACTS AND RUMORS.

WASHINGTON, March 27, M.

Stevens' Universal Suffrage amendment covers all the States, but the penalty for infringement applies only to Alabama. Its defeat is regarded as certain, as it would give Alabama to the Democrats. The passage of the bill, as reported, which validates the Constitution and inaugurates the State officers recently voted for, is apprehended, though vicent cross purposes exist. The aforesaid revolutions are speculated upon at every corner.

Impeachment speculation is rife, but the actors in the play are reticent. Nothing reliably indicative or suggestive has transpired.

Proceedings of the meeting on Monday.

GEN. W. S. LITTLEFIELD.

The Yankee whose name heads this article was the great lobby member of the Convention, and is supposed to have exerted a considerable influence, if he did not in some things shape the action of that body. How far he was instrumental in getting the provision inserted in the Constitution by which our people are to be taxed more than they can bear, that the Wall Street brokers may be able to sell their N. C. Bonds at an enormous advance, and thus realize immense fortunes, we cannot tell. We know not how much interest he had in the success of that measure, but, if he, himself, is to be believed, he was deeply interested in the appropriation of $28,000 per mile, for the Chatham railroad. He boasted repeatedly during the session of the Convention that he was the owner of large possessions in the Deep River valley. The completion of that Road must necessarily inure greatly to his benefit. Our people would do well to remember this fact, and to remember that much of the legislation of this Convention will redound mainly, if not solely, to the benefit of this class of men, while our own people will be required to pay ten times their former taxes to carry it out, if the new Constitution should be adopted. Why was $28,000 per mile appropriated to this road and only $10,000 per mile to the North Western road? Was it because of the influence exerted by this man Littlefield?—Old North State.

SHALL WHITE CHILDREN BE APPRENTICED TO NEGRO MASTERS?—That is one of the issues. The mongrel Convention refused to prohibit such a thing!

THE GREAT and paramount issue is, SHALL NEGROES or WHITE MEN RULE NORTH CAROLINA? All other issues are secondary and subordinate, and should be kept so.

A PLAN OF ORGANIZATION.

STATE ORGANIZATION.

A State Committee, to consist of a Chairman and thirty members,—six of whom shall reside in Raleigh, and three in each judicial district—to be appointed by the State Convention.

The Committee shall have power to maintain its organization, by filling vacancies, &c., and shall take charge of all matters relating to organization, registration, &c., and a proper canvass of the State.

DISTRICT ORGANIZATION.

The members of the State Committee in each judicial district shall constitute a district Committee for their respective districts and shall appoint a Chairman, and shall take charge of all matters relating to county organization, &c., in their respective districts; and shall report all matters relating thereto, to the Chairman of the State Committee.

COUNTY ORGANIZATION.

It is recommended that each County, by popular meetings or through the medium of existing organizations, appoint a County Committee, to consist of at least two persons from each Captain's District within its limits.

The County Committee shall take charge of all matters of registration, local organization, &c., within the County, and is requested to make monthly reports to the Chairman of the District Committee, and, when necessary, to inform him of such local matters as may require the attention of the District Committee.

It is further recommended that each County Committee cause to be enrolled the names of all the registered voters of their county, who are willing to act and vote with this organization—no man to be thus enrolled without his express consent; and, also, that they cause to be enrolled on a separate list the names of all those who are entitled to register, but who have not done so, and that they use every exertion to secure their registration and active co-operation.

Resolved, That the President of the Convention appoint five or more persons, in each County, to make a thorough canvass of the same, and disseminate proper political information.

DECLARATION OF PRINCIPLES.

The Conservative people of North Carolina having, by their delegates, assembled in Convention at Raleigh, on the 5th. of February, 1868, to consider the present anomalous condition of the State, and of the country, and to consult together upon the grievances which now afflict and threaten them, and the course of action proper to be adopted in the trying circumstances which surround them, do resolve and declare

1. Our unalterable devotion to the principles of Constitutional liberty and our fealty to the government of the United States, as set forth in the Federal Constitution. That we sincerely and in good faith accept the legitimate and legal results of the late war, and do hereby reiterate our oft repeated declaration, that we most heartily desire peace and concord with our sister States and with the entire people of the United States.

2. Resolved, That regarding the Constitution of the United States as the source of all power in the administration of the government, and that the powers of the Executive, Legislative and Judicial departments are equal and co ordinate, as defined by that instrument, we do respectfully and solemnly protest against the enforcement upon our people of the Reconstruction Acts and policy of Congress, as unconstitutional, unwise and destructive to society, and violative of that great principle of American politics, that each State shall have the exclusive control of its own internal affairs.

3. Resolved That it is the opinion of this Convention, that the great and all absorbing issue, now soon to be presented to the people of the State, is negro suffrage and negro equality, if not supremacy, and whether hereafter in North Carolina and the South, the white man is to be placed politically, and, as a consequence, socially, upon a footing of equality with the negro, and, in many localities, subject to his government as a superior. That we are utterly opposed to such change in our government and in our social relations, and that we do hereby earnestly recommend to the people of the State to manfully meet the issue now attempted to be forced upon them, and to use every proper means within their power to avert the impending mischief.

4. Resolved, That while we are unalterably opposed to political and social equality with the black race, we yet have no unjust prejudices against that race; that we are de ermined, by just laws, to protect them fully in all their civil rights, and to confer upon them all privileges which can be done consistently with the safety and welfare of both races.

5. Resolved, That the distressed and impoverished condition of our people earnestly demands the speediest and wisest measures of relief that the Legislature can devise.

6. Resolved, That this Convention recognizes, with feelings of gratitude, the heroic and patriotic efforts of the President of the United States, to restore the Union and harmony and good will among the American people.

7. Resolved, That this Convention regards the Supreme Court of the United States as the legitimate expounder, in the last resort, of the Constitution—and believe that its rights and powers, in that respect, should be preserved intact, as established by law in the earlier and better days of the Republic, and that any serious impairment thereof, by legislation or otherwise, will be destructive to the best interests of the country, and dangerous to the liberties of the people.

8. Resolved, That despairing of any restoration of the Southern States under the conduct of that organization which now controls the proceedings of Congress, waiving all former party feeling and prejudice, this Convention does most unhesitatingly recommend and invite the hearty co-operation of all the good people of North Carolina with the Democrats and Conservative men of the North and West, who are now nobly struggling for the maintenance of the Constitution of the United States and the restoration of the Southern States to their rights in the Union on the solid foundation of harmony and peace.

9. Resolved, That this Convention elect four delegates and four alternates, for the State at large, to represent the Conservative people of North Carolina in the next Democratic National Convention, and that it recommend to the Conservative people of the several Congressional Districts, to appoint delegates at an early day to represent them in said Convention.

10. Resolved, That when an election shall be ordered for the ratification of a new State Constitution, the Executive Committee for the State, which has been appointed by this Convention, be instructed, if the time shall be sufficient, to call a Convention of the Conservative people of the State, to put in nomination candidates for the various State offices whose election shall then be ordered; and if there shall not be sufficient time to call said Convention, to put in nomination sound Conservative men for said offices.

NEW ARRANGEMENT FOR THE SENTINEL.
Published in the City of Raleigh, N. C.,
Daily, Semi Weekly and Weekly.
William E. Pell, } Editors.
Seaton Gales, }

In view of the scarcity of money, and the severity of the times, the Proprietor of the SENTINEL has determined to reduce the terms of the paper, to commence after the 31st. DECEMBER, next, and to make such improvements in its general character as will commend it to the patronage of an enlightened public.

In POLITICS it will be thoroughly Conservative, advocating, at all times:

A strict observance of the Constitution of the United States, and their harmonious Union of equal States:
Obedience to, but not the enforcement of order;
The supremacy of the civil over the military, in time of peace;
The equality of the three co-ordinate branches of the government;
The sovereignty of the States over their own internal affairs, in strict conformity to the Constitution;
The maintenance of freedom and justice to all, without distinction of color, but the supremacy of the white race as the governing class;
Opposition to Radicalism in all its phases.

As a NEWS journal, it shall be equal to any.
The principal markets will be regularly published.
Its LITERARY character shall be maintained and improved. We contributions from our best writers.
Finally, the SENTINEL will seek to be the special promoter of the educational, moral and economical interests of the people of North Carolina.

Terms:

Daily Sentinel, for one year	$8 00
" " six months	4 00
" " three months	2 00
Semi Weekly Sentinel, for one year	4 00
" " six months	2 00
" " three months	1 00
Weekly " for one year	2 00
" " six months	1 00

All subscriptions strictly cash in advance
As an advertising medium, the SENTINEL is equal to any in the State. Terms moderate.

☞ We ask every Conservative in the State to become our Agent to extend the circulation of the SENTINEL. The events of 1868 will be exciting and important. The WEEKLY SENTINEL should be in the hands of the great body of the people—The terms are now so low that every one will be able to pay for it.
